

October 2012

Children look at seeds using magnifying glasses and plant radish seeds. They are learning to use tools (magnifiers). They are learning about the life cycle of a plant and that seeds need water, soil, and sunlight to grow. Erin read books about how seeds grow and children played "Seeds and Gardeners." Some children pretended to be growing seeds while others watered them to help them grow.