

4/30/2014

The children work together to build tall towers out of pegs. They are sharing ideas and cooperating as they learn mathematic concepts such as length and number and how adding one more makes it taller.

