

Please, Baby, Please

The class read Please, Baby, Please by Spike Lee and Tonya Lewis Lee. The book features repetitive phrases and sing song rhythm that makes memorization easy for students. As a circle time activity, students acted out the book by participating in the bad behavior that Baby in the book did. The book also featured clocks with the time that Baby's bad behavior occurred at, this offers practice for students to expand their knowledge about time. 1-13
